

A pink dress and a matching wide-brimmed hat are depicted as if they are floating or flying through the air. The dress is a vibrant pink with a white outline, and the hat is also pink with a white outline. They are connected by a thin black line that forms a small bow at the top of the dress, suggesting they are attached to a string or ribbon. The background is a light blue sky filled with numerous white, stylized clouds of various sizes and shapes.
